

1670 Sports & Entertainment is Seeking fulfillment of the following Positions;

Race of Champions (All Race of Champions positions are part-time and may require some travel dependent on the location of the potential candidate. Locations include Spencer Speedway in Williamson, NY; Chemung (NY) Speedrome; Holland (NY) Speedway and Lake Erie Speedway in North East, PA).

Officials / Pit Stewards; Assist with the presentation, administration and actual running of a stock car racing event. Officials may be required to flag cars, deliver messages to teams and direct traffic in an effort to offer participants and fans an efficient, exciting and professionally executed event. No experience is necessary and proper training will be provided.

Technical Inspectors; Assist in technical inspection, pre and post-race. Develop and be trained in skilled areas that require detailed attention. Inspectors may be required to work during other times of the events as officials and/or with other details as required. No experience is required, mechanical background is preferred. Proper training will be provided.

Series Registrar; Register drivers and teams for competition, answer questions and assist in managing equipment and series areas during an event night. No experience is necessary and proper training will be provided.

Victory Lane Coordination; Assist with presentation and coordination of victory lane ceremonies. Proper training will be provided.

Marketing / Sales / Activation Coordinator; An aggressive sales person with marketing skills that is able to attend events and engage in partnership activation on a multitude of levels. The position will be commission based. Experience is preferred but not required.

Ticketing / Credentialing; Enthusiastic customer service based people to work in ticketing and potentially credentials. This job is required to handle money (cash and electronically) and be held accountable. No experience is necessary, proper training provided.

Ticketing Gate Personnel; Enthusiastic customer service based people to work at main and competitor gate entrances. Responsible for ticket taking and examining for proper credentials. This position requires lengthy outdoor periods and may be required to direct people who are not to be admitted due to lack of proper tickets or credentials. No experience is necessary, proper training provided.

BKH Speed and Custom Parts (All BKH position are part-time and may require some travel dependent on the location of the potential candidate. Locations include Ransomville (NY) Speedway).

Fuel Sales / Part / Trailer Attendant; Reliable individual who enjoys attending events and is driven to work. Some heavy lifting will be required. Some mechanical and/or fuel experience is preferred but not necessary. Proper training will be provided.

Tire Inventory Assistant; Attend events, scan, inventory and track tires. Some heavy lifting may be required. Some experience is preferred but not necessary. Proper training will be provided.

RPM Newsletter and Workshops (All RPM positions are part-time and may require some travel dependent on the location of the potential candidate. Locations include Reno, NV; Indianapolis, IN and Daytona Beach, FL).

Marketing / Sales / Activation Coordinator; An aggressive sales person with marketing skills that is able to attend events and engage in partnership activation on a multitude of levels. The position will be commission based. Experience is preferred but not required.

Ticketing / Credentialing; Enthusiastic customer service based people to work in ticketing and potentially credentials. This job is required to handle money (cash and electronically) and be held accountable. No experience is necessary, proper training provided.

Author / Contributor / Assistant Editor; Potential Author, Contributor and/or Assistant editor for the RPM Newsletter. This process will be selective with managed and gauged opportunity. Candidates must supply writing samples and offer what software candidate is comfortable with. Must be self-motivated, creative and have motorsports industry knowledge.